THG PLC

Inclusion in FTSE 250 Index

THG PLC ("THG" or the "Company") is pleased to note that, following the transfer to the equity shares (commercial companies) category in January 2025, FTSE 250 index inclusion is anticipated as part of the FTSE Russell quarterly review.

Subject to confirmation from FTSE Russell, FTSE 250 index inclusion is expected to become effective on or around 21 March 2025. This represents a further important step to support the Company's strategy through raising its visibility.

Matthew Moulding, CEO of THG, commented:

"Our anticipated inclusion in the FTSE 250 marks an important moment in THG's evolution following the demerger of THG Ingenuity. As a global beauty, health and wellness consumer brands group, we continue to make significant progress against our strategic priorities."
